

Storms

Wednesday, December 20, 2000

Duxbury Clipper

STORMY WEATHER: Harbormaster Don Beers reported hurricane force wind gusts of 78 mph at the harbor during Sunday night's storm which downed trees and utility wires around town. High winds caused spotted power outages and required DPW crews to spend Monday collecting downed limbs along streets throughout town. The end wall of the newly framed Senior Center project off Mayflower Street blew down. Also, this pear tree on the Tomasi property at Woodland Way was another casualty.